

MERS IRA Contribution Form

How much can I contribute to my MERS IRA?

The 2019 annual contribution limit is the lesser of the following amounts:

- $6,000
- Your taxable compensation for the year

If you will be age 50 or over, the most that you can contribute to your MERS IRA will be the lesser of the following amounts:

- $7,000
- Your taxable compensation for the year

If you have more than one IRA (traditional or Roth) the limit applies to the total contributions made on your behalf to all of your IRAs for that year.

Taxable compensation

Generally, taxable compensation includes wages, salaries, tips, professional fees, bonuses, and other amounts you receive for providing personal services.

You must have taxable compensation to be eligible to make contributions to the MERS IRA. This does not include any of the following items:

- Earnings and profits from property, such as rental income, interest income, and dividend income.
- Pension or annuity income including distributions from 457, 401(k), 403(b) plans, or IRAs.

Making Contributions

You can contribute as often as you like, but you are responsible for making sure you do not exceed annual IRS contribution limits. Contributions can be made to your account any time during the year or by the deadline for filing your federal income tax return for that calendar year, not including extensions. Contributions designated for a previous calendar year must be received prior to the tax filing deadline.

Each year, you will receive a 5498 form showing all contributions received for the previous calendar year, including any contributions made in the current year that were designated as prior year contributions. You do not need the 5498 for tax filing purposes, but should keep it with your other important tax documents for future reference. It will be sent to you by May 31 of each year and will come from Alerus Retirement and Benefits.

Rollover Contributions

A rollover is a tax-free distribution from an existing retirement plan or account that you transfer into your MERS IRA. A rollover does not count toward the annual IRA contribution limit and is not a deductible contribution. To complete a rollover, use the Incoming Rollover/Transfer Form \(MD-804\).

ROTH IRA CONTRIBUTIONS

Your eligibility to contribute to a Roth IRA depends on whether you have taxable compensation, your modified adjusted gross income (AGI), and your federal income tax filing status.

MERS and Alerus (the administrator of the MERS IRA) are not responsible for determining or tracking the non-taxable contributions to the MERS Roth IRA.

The following table explains the extent to which you are eligible to contribute to the MERS Roth IRA:

Tax filing status	Modified AGI	Contribution limit
Single or head of household	Up to $122,000	Up to the limit
	Over $122,000, but less than $137,000	Reduced amount*
	$137,000 or more	Zero
Married filing jointly or qualifying widower	Up to $193,000	Up to the limit
	Over $193,000, but less than $203,000	Reduced amount*
	$203,000 or more	Zero
This table applies to the 2019 tax year.

* Please consult a licensed tax professional or use the IRS Publication 590-A worksheet to calculate your reduced contribution.

If you make too much to contribute to a Roth IRA or contribute more than permitted, your excess contribution will be subject to a tax penalty unless withdrawn prior to the tax-filing deadline for the year.

TRADITIONAL IRA CONTRIBUTIONS

Tax Deduction for a Traditional IRA

You may be able to deduct the contributions to your MERS Traditional IRA on your federal income tax return.

Whether your contributions will be deductible or not depends on your (and your spouse's if married) modified Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) (calculated from information on your tax return) and whether or not you are covered by another retirement plan at work. The W-2 you receive from your employer indicates whether you were covered by a retirement plan for this year. If the "Retirement Plan" box is checked, you were covered for this year.

The deductibility of your IRA does not affect the maximum contribution limit. Even when your contributions are not tax deductible, any earnings still grow tax-deferred, which means taxes will not be owed until withdrawal.

MERS and Alerus (the administrator of the MERS IRA) are not responsible for determining or tracking the non-taxable contributions to the MERS Traditional IRA.

If you ARE covered by a retirement plan at work

Tax filing status	Modified AGI	Deduction
Single or head of household	Up to $64,000	Full deduction
	Over $64,000, but less than $74,000	Partial deduction*
	$74,000 or more	No deduction
Married filing jointly or qualifying widower	Up to $103,000	Full deduction
	Over $103,000, but less than $123,000	Partial deduction*
	$123,000 or more	No deduction

This table applies to the 2019 tax year.

If you are NOT covered by a retirement plan at work

Tax filing status	Modified AGI	Deduction
Single, head of household or qualifying widower	Any amount	Full deduction
Married filing jointly with a spouse who is NOT covered by a plan at work	Any amount	Full deduction
Married filing jointly with a spouse who IS COVERED by a plan at work	Up to $193,000	Full deduction
	Over $193,000, but less than $203,000	Partial deduction*
	$203,000 or more	No deduction

This table applies to the 2019 tax year.

* Please consult a licensed tax professional or use the IRS Publication 590-A worksheet to calculate your reduced contribution.
